For security reasons, access should only be made via clicking on the ADF Online menu option on the ADF website: www.adfmelbourne.org.au We reserve the right to modify, enhance, cancel or withdraw the service at any time.

ADF Terms & Conditions

All investments are made with the Melbourne Anglican Trust Corporation (MATC) 209 Flinders Lane, Melbourne, Victoria, 3000 in its capacity as trustee of the charitable trust known as the Anglican Development Fund (ADF). The MATC is also the trustee for the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne.

Investors should be aware that the ADF is not subject to the normal requirement to have a disclosure document or Product Disclosure Statement and be registered or have a trust deed under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). The ADF has not been examined or approved by the Australian Securities & Investments Commission (ASIC).

Further, neither the ADF nor the MATC is prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and investments in the ADF are not deposits and do not obtain the benefit of the depositor protection provisions of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth).

An investment in the ADF is designed for persons who wish to promote the charitable purposes of the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne and for whom the considerations of profit are not of primary relevance to a decision to make an investment in the ADF.

No persons other than the Diocese of Melbourne will receive a material benefit in connection with the promotion of the ADF, the administration or management of the assets of the ADF or the provision of investment advice in respect of the ADF. However, investment proceeds received by the ADF may be invested in funds managed by the MATC and, as a result, the MATC and other third parties associated with the operations of those funds may indirectly benefit from the payment of fees and expenses out of those funds.

Investments are not secured but repayment is supported by the underlying investments made by the ADF. Please note that the liability of the MATC to investors in the ADF is strictly limited to the assets of the MATC held in its capacity as trustee of the ADF and does not extend to the assets of the MATC held in any other capacity (other than in its capacity as trustee of the Diocese of Melbourne).

The Diocese of Melbourne has guaranteed MATC's obligations to Investors. The Guarantee provided is subject to the terms and conditions of a Deed dated 29 May 2009. The Guarantee can be withdrawn on three months written notice to MATC.

The Diocese of Melbourne underwrites, in accordance with arrangements approved from time to time, the repayment of loans made by the ADF to Diocesan entities.
